Please see pp. 1-8 ante (R)

90. Read letter Ref. No. 1103/C.J.B/21 to Government soliciting orders to sanction the payment, from Provincial Funds, of travelling allowance of Rs. 171-14-6 to Sub Assistant Surgeon M.R.Ry. S. Madhava Pai, for his journey from Kumbhakonam to Shankaranarayana on transfer.

Also G.O. No. 989 P.H. Cr. 20362, from the D.T.B. Coondapur, No. 1103 Dt. 23.9.20

Travelling allowance - Certain med. Officers - Waiving recovery -

The Coondapur TK. Bd. requests the Govt. to meet the travelling allowances of the undermentioned officers from Provincial funds:-

pp 1-4 of G.O. 989 13.8.21 (K)

1) MRBy. E. Venkata Rao Avl. — Transferred from Coondapur to Madras (for statistical duty in DB's office) — Rs 303.3.6

5-8

2) MRBy. A. Narasinga Rao Avl. — Transferred from Madras to Coondapur to take the place of No. 1 — Rs 263.7.0

9-10

3) MRBy. S. Madhava Pai — Transferred from Kumbakonam to Ramkasapatanam to take the place of MRBy. B. Krishna Rao Avl. granted combined leave preparatory to retirement — Rs 171.14.6

P.J

(K) It will be observed from the correspondence at pp. 1-3, 5-6 & 9-10 of G.O. 989 P.H Dt. 13-8-21 that the above transfers were made purely in the interests of the service and not that of the TK. Bd. and without reference to the wishes of the local body. Hence it does not seem equitable to require the local body to pay the travelling allowances of these medical subordinates. Perhaps the DB. Could not find other men knowing the language of the Dt. and thus avoid these transfers.

2. Sanction that as a special case recovery in the three cases mentioned above may be waived in accordance with the orders in G.O. 78 P.H. of 26.1.21. A draft order is submitted for approval. It may be sent to Finance for acceptance.

(H)

9. The question of the debit of transfers of officers lent to local bodies when made in the interests of the service is now under consideration. This dept. is of opinion that the Govt should be debited to Prov. funds if the transfers are purely in the interests of the service and does not benefit the local body. The matter has been referred up. to the S.S.

I do not think the 3rd transfer can be said to be entirely in the interests of the Govt, but the Govt should pay in the first two cases.

I think the 3rd transfer also is clearly in the interests of the service and not of the local body. A case which is similar is settled by a contribution of 5% only from Kumbakonam Municipality.
